More Evidence Against Blaine The evidence that Blaine is a corrupt man still accumulates. The latest is an old story revied, but it is nevertheless a clincher. Mr. James F. Joy, president of the Worbash railroad told it in 1880, but as he presented Blaine's name to the Chicago convention of that year it was hushed up. This is the story as Mr. Joy first told it :

"He was in Washington during the winter of 1869-70 in the interest of the Leavenworth, Lawrence and Galveston Railroad. The road had been given a large land grant, the most valuable part of which was claimed to be covered by a prior grant by treaty to the Great Little Osage Indians. A House committee of investigation was to be appointed to inquire into this, Mr. Joy was confident of the legal rights of his company as against Blaine, asking him to appoint on I hope that he will be elected," said the committee one lawyer of high Geo.
